Beef

Premium Certified Irish Angus

Breed specific - Angus beef is renowned worldwide for its superior taste, succulence and flavour. Angus, as a brand name, is unique in agriculture for its recognition and branding.

Traditional beef cattle breed name and image represent a hallmark of the finest quality beef.

Thanks to its distinctive breeding characteristics and independent DNA testing, Certified Irish Angus offers a premium, marbled and succulent beef product. All beef is procured from registered farmers whose farms are audited annually to ensure animal friendly husbandry systems.

Farmhouse Foods works closely with the Certified Irish Angus Producer Group in order to deliver this internationally recognised product. Certified Irish Angus Producer Group formed in 1997.

Membership has grown to over 7000 farms in 26 counties throughout Ireland. Sole license for Certified Irish Angus Beef (CIA).

We have an exceptional system supported by unique inspection and verification system which provides our customers with credible and auditable certification.
